October President's Message

Our next meeting is Tuesday, October 8th. At that time nominations for officers to guide our Club through 2014 will be announced. The election will be held in November and officers will assume their responsibilities in December at the Christmas Pot Luck luncheon. See information about the luncheon in this newsletter.

Guest speaker at the October 8th meeting is Shannon Agee from the Roseburg Family History Center, who will speak about New Family Search. She is well versed in the subject and will provide an update about this new way of accessing genealogical information. I recently used New Family Search and found data that has opened up one new line for me. I was thrilled with what I found and expect to continue fleshing out more about my mother's side of the family as a result.

Family History Month 2013

Grants Pass Mayor Darin Fowler has declared
October 2013 in Grants Pass as Family History Month.
A copy of the proclamation is printed in this newsletter.

I want to thank Don Thomas and Marsha Young for contacting each GPGS member during the past month to see who would like to run for an elected office. I'm anxious to see who will run for the four elected offices of President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer. Whoever is elected will have the responsibility of guiding our Club through 2014.

October is Family History Month and will be observed in Grants Pass at the annual Grants Pass Community Family History Seminar on October 12th from 8am until 4pm. at the LDS Church on Williams Highway.

Attending the seminar is a great way to learn about new techniques, software, research and programs for genealogists. This seminar sponsored by the Family History Center promises to be very rewarding.

The keynote speaker is Anne Billeter who will enlighten us on “Sarah Ann: A Jackson County Mystery.” There are no names on her gravestone in the Jacksonville Cemetery, just one single word “Mother.” Who was she? What was her story? How was her mystery solved?

2013 Flea Market

The yard sale was very successful and those of us who were there had a pleasant time and the weather was just right. We sold most all the stuff I'd been storing in my garage for about eight months and earned a tidy amount for the Club treasury. Thanks to members who brought some items to add to the inventory...most all of those items sold, also. Refer to the financial report submitted by Shar Fairchild for the final count of what this event earned for GPGS. (Editor note: we cleared approximately $270.00.)

Grants Pass Family History Center

If you haven't been in to the Family History Center in Grants Pass, take some time to go there soon. The facility is open Tuesdays and Thursdays from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm, Wednesdays from 8:30 am to 9 pm and Friday mornings from 10 am until 1 pm. The facility has been remodeled, has multiple computers and wireless internet. Bring a thumb drive to download information or pay 10 cents per printed copy of information. If you don't have a thumb drive you can purchase one for $5.00 to store your research. Ancestry.com, fold3 and 15 other premium databases are available for free and the staff is ready and eager to assist you to get over that brick wall.

See you at the October 8th meeting.....

Celeste Guillory
GPGS President

Oct. 12th Program Information

Shannon Agee has been doing her own genealogy for the last 25+ years. She has been working in the Roseburg, Oregon Family History Center for most of that time as a Consultant, Staff Trainer, Assistant Director and Director. Shannon is now serving a part-time mission as a Church Service Missionary in that same FHC. Reading, gardening, teaching, and crafts of all kinds are great fun for her, but family history is her passion!

She will teach "New Family Search" at the October 8th Grants Pass Genealogical Society following the general meeting that commences at 1PM.

Thank You Letter to Daily Courier

September 21, 2013

Grants Pass Daily Courier
Attn; Tamara & Debbie,

Thank you for arranging the use of the Courier employee parking lot to hold a yard sale on September 14th. We did very well and earned $270.00 for our efforts. We especially appreciate the free ad in the Courier announcing our event on September 14th. Many people saw the ad and came to see what we had to offer. We had very little left unsold at the end of the day.

We look forward to next August's annual yard sale sponsored by the Courier ... our largest fundraising source other than membership dues. Please pass our thanks on to the owner on our behalf.

Very truly,

Celeste Guillory
President
Grants Pass Genealogical Society

Bulletin Board at Library

Jeri Paradise and Celeste Guillory have decorated a hallway bulletin board at the Josephine Community Library in Grants Pass with a colorful display in honor of Family History Month. Here is a small photo that doesn't do it justice. Stop by and check out the real thing—it will be available for viewing until the end of October.
